WOMEN PROTECTION CELL

Women Protection Cell is established in our college for women staff and students to enhance understanding of issues related to women and to make the college campus a safe place for them. Women Empowerment is one of the multidimensional social processes addressing human rights and development, which helps women to gain control over their own lives and gives the ability to make strategic choices of life. Women's empowerment and achieving gender equality is essential for our society to ensure the overall successful development of the country.
